

New Hope Oklahoma is a Tulsa-based 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to providing services to children with parents in prison. Their programs consist of summer camps, after-school programs, community-based programs, weekend retreats, family gatherings, and case management services. All programs are offered free of charge to qualifying children. These programs are made possible through individual and corporate donations, foundation and federal grants, trained volunteers and a highly qualified staff. New Hope is changing the lives of children of prisoners everyday.

Iron Gate's mission is to feed the hungry of Tulsa—every day. They feed people in three ways, through their soup kitchen, grocery pantry and Kids Pantry. They call those who eat at Iron Gate their “guests” because they invite them to eat there. Their philosophy is that we are all guests on this earth and guests treat one another with courtesy, kindness and respect. They strive to be a friendly, welcoming place where all are greeted with a smile—a place of comfort and wholesome food, and a temporary respite from the major problems awaiting their guests outside our gates—unemployment, poverty, health care, shelter, transportation and more.

Boy Scout Troop and Crew 153 will benefit from our proceeds. Boy Scouting was introduced to Britain, and the world, in 1907 by Sir Robert Baden-Powell, the son of an Anglican priest. William D. Boyce was exposed to the Boy Scouts during a trip to Britain in 1909. He was able to have the Boy Scouts of America incorporated on February 8, 1910. Both the Boy Scouts of America and the Brotherhood of St Andrew were chartered by Congress and signed into law by President Teddy Roosevelt in the first decade of the 20th Century, and maintained a relationship since then. The Memorandum of Understanding signed by the two groups on October 17, 2016 strengthened their relationship in this second decade of the 21st Century. Many Brotherhood chapters are sponsoring Boy Scout troops.

The Brotherhood of Saint Andrew was first organized on Saint Andrew's Day, November 30, 1883, as a prayer and Bible study group at St. James' Church in Chicago. Like it's namesake the apostle Saint Andrew it's mission is to bring men and youth nearer to Christ through prayer, study and service. The Brotherhood is the official men's ministry of the Episcopal Church and our current Presiding Bishop Michael Curry is a longtime member and supporter of the Brotherhood. We appreciate the opportunity to raise funds for these deserving charities.
